There followed an Extraordinary General Meeting:

Attendance Fees. It was agreed the £1 attendance fee need only be paid if members turn up at Club and run or walk as part of the club activity.

Trophies. Helen volunteered to organise trophies but it was decided to stick to the status quo.

Travel expenses for members selected for Wales. It was agreed that the one off donation of £50 from the Club in recognition of the achievement would continue and be the only payment being made available.

Dinner Guests. It was decided that partners/escorts of guests invited to the Club dinner would have their meal paid for irrespective of their club membership status.

Tenby 10k. Ann Rowell briefed those present on the plans for the Tenby 10k which includes a change of route and start /finish location. There is a small committee organising the event.

The meeting closed at 21:03.
